

Hotel Gangtok Drift is located at Tadong along the national highway, just five minutes away from M.G. Marg, the heart of Gangtok. The hotel is designed in new-age architecture with a focus on comfort and contemporary trends of living, all at an affordable tariff. It offers world-class facilities and brilliant services with modern amenities.

The other USP of Hotel Gangtok Drift is that it's differently-abled-friendly. We have 19 rooms – 8 are super-deluxe, 9 are executive rooms and 2 are suites. Our restaurant & bar, and the spa services have been well received by our guests. Enjoy your well-deserved holidays with us.

Sikkim is synonymous with natural beauty, peace and cultural richness. It is a perfect destination to get rejuvenated and come closer to nature. Gangtok, of course, is the most-preferred centre for tourists to visit in East Sikkim, apart from other places of attraction in west, north and south districts.

...And your Sikkim sojourn would be incomplete without a stay in Hotel Gangtok Drift.

Hotel Gangtok Drift is ideal for pleasure and business travellers. The hotel fits all your requirements and the varied purposes of visiting Sikkim – honeymoon, adventure tour, business trips or simply for an experience with nature and the cultural diversity of Sikkim.

WHY VISIT SIKKIM?

Home to the world's 3rd highest peak - Mount Khangchendzonga, Sikkim was listed as one of top must-visit destinations in the world in 2014 by The Lonely Planet. The leading global travel magazine advocates Sikkim as the perfect antidote if you are feeling jaded and looking for a rejuvenating break.

Sikkim can be visited in all seasons. From the fresh, rejuvenating smell of the deciduous forests, to experiencing the first snowfall of the year at Tsomgo Lake in spring, see shades of Sikkim throughout the year.

Monsoons have a liberating charm as they bring with it gigantic waterfalls breaking out from every corner of the hills and forests at its petrichor best. Mists and fog play hide and seek between the valleys evoking emancipating emotions.

The rains are followed by September-October season where the skies are clear and the hills are vibrant with beautiful colours.

Engage in the local festivals as the majestic Khangchendzonga range overlooks the surroundings.

Winter has its own share of fun and reasons to be in Sikkim. The weather will be cold but it is after all the festive season. One can witness the esoteric cultural dances and revelry as local communities celebrates the advent of New Year.

PERMITS: Foreigners need to obtain Inner Line Permit, which is issued from all Indian Consulates abroad. Tourism offices of Sikkim Government also issue these permits on submitting photocopies of Indian visa, passport details and 2 passport size photographs.
